Ronnie will forever hold a place in my heart. Ronnie and I shared what I call "A crazy kind of love!!" No matter how many conflicts we had, will still had a bond that no one could ever shatter. Ronnie's love for his children was phenomenal. Abigail and Drake were his pride and joy. I remember how he would sit back and look at those 2 children and all you could see was a smile on his face. He adored them. He loved taking them places and doing special things with them. He will truly be missed by us all. I love you Ronnie and promise to take care of our children. Make sure you are behind them kicking them in the butt when they start to make wrong choices. Rest in Peace my friend. Karen Rowe

It saddened me to hear Ronnie passed before he made it home. But he's really home now, all the pain is gone and his soul is free. He made his amends with the one that truly counts. Abby and Drake take comfort in the love he had for both of you, and he will always be in your hearts. Mason, Donna, Richard, Anthony, Abby, Drake my prayers go out to you. Love you all, Jean

Ronnie and I were truly the "best of friends" for many years, some of the most memorable times in our brief lives were spent together, we 2 spent one epic weekend in New York city that will remain with me forever. Every time I think of my friend I will remember that smile, and what a smile and laugh he had. I refuse to say goodbye to my dear friend, goodbye sounds too permanent, I will say until we meet again my friend. No longer are you bound by the pain that this cancer has caused you, free to soar forever and visit with your mom a spell. Abby, Drake, Karen, Mason, Richard and Anthony please know you are in our thoughts and our prayers, and Ronnie, I love ya bro. Rest well till I get there.
