Rachel Hill lit a candle in honor of Albert.

Memories of my Aunt and Uncle visiting were some of the best. I remember they lived in a little white house behind where the old Grant County Library was in Williamstown. I walked in and Uncle Albert would say you ate yet? but I couldn't understand what he was talking about so I looked at my dad and he said have you eaten? I was like oh, so from then on every time I saw uncle Albert I'd ask him you ate yet. I will miss you dear Uncle. My love, thoughts and prayers are with me Aunt, Cousins and their families. I love you all dearly.
