My condolences & prayers to Shirley's family, she would want you all to be strong and not worry about her, because she is alright. Shirley knew the lord. When I would stop by also call Shirley, she would say she was reading her bible. We would talk about the scriptures she had read. Shirley was a very nice person. She would do what ever she could to help somebody. She would always say she was gonna retire and rest at the age of 62, well looks like god had something in store for her. She will rest on. I am gonna miss my sister in Christ. To the family, continue to trust in god. David A. Derby
