Jack was a very Special person and we loved him. I am thankful that God let him pass through our life because we are richer having known him. Our Deepest Sympathy goes out to Kay and the children, and Linda and all of Jack's sisters and brother. May God give you Peace and help you to keep the "good" memories in your hearts and minds. I KNOW that Jack is in Heaven and I am thankful that he no longer has to suffer but I know that he will also be missed very much. God Bless each of you.

I went to school w/ Jack and Rebecca. Having grown up in Amissville I have lots of memories of riding the school bus in elementary school with both of them. I am sorry to hear of his passing and extend my deepest condolences to the entire family.

Where do I begin... wow the memories I have of my little cousin are so very precious and will always be treasured forever in my heart. I can remember all the times we had together as little kids on the weekends. It was either a Sunday ride in the back of a pickup truck going swimming in the river or all of us crammed in one car ( no seatbelts mind you and with 6 kids in the backseat) going for a ride in the country listening to our parents say, " kids this is where such and such grew up", or "this is where such and such lived". Back then, we were just happy to go somewhere cause we were with our two favorite cousins, Lil Jack and Rebecca, and it didnt matter where we went. Sometimes they would end up at our house after Big Jack played music on a Saturday nite, which was usually way after midnite :). Little Jack would come in and say, "we're here cause daddy wasnt ready to go home", and make us laugh cause he was tired and we had been asleep. My sister reminded me of a nickname we used to call him; MachoMan. He was always saying he was strong and could do anything cause he was "MachoMan"!! We really did have some fun times together as kids and we were so close growing up that they felt more like a brother and sister. But, we all grew up and kinda went our own ways and still kept in touch, but not as much as we should have. Jack, you have touched more lives and hearts than anyone will ever know and I will truly miss you and your jokes and laughter. You are free now from all your pain and suffering and can fly with the angels with your huge smile and look down on us and say, "Look at me, I CAN fly now, I really am MachoMan". I love you forever and always my little cousin!!!!
