Dear Lee, Kris, Ashley and Family:April and I send our love in this very difficult time. What impressed me most upon meeting Ryan was his warm eyes and quick, gentle smile -- much as I first saw in his Dad's face, when I met him so many years ago as kids. Ryan combined his father's wit and his mother's grace. Love, Brian

Ash, Mr.& Mrs. Miller, Steve and Heather and all the family, I'm so very, very sorry for your loss - for what we all have lost in Ryan's passing from this world to the next. I regret that I couldn't be there in person last week. I will never forget Ryan and the immense love and gentleness he shared with us all while he was here. Love to you all, Natalie Apuzzo

Dear Kris & Lee, You've been on our minds and in our prayers ever since we learned about Ryan. We often look back and laugh fondly at his rendition of "Kokomo" during the week we spent at the beach at Duck. He was a great kid with a wonderful family. God will care for him with kindness and love. Love, Craig, C.J. & Pam
