My uncle chuck once told me that i would be blessed for what i was doing taking care of my nieces and nephew, i responded by saying to him, "you think so"? he said yes..he then told me that i should have a halo over my head, i smiled and said goodbye to him. little did i know that would be the last time i would ever get to see my uncle chuck again, however, he is the one with the halo over his head now. i will miss you uncle chuck, there is no doubt about it. i will miss telling you that you should play santa one year since you were jolly....over the years i have always kept you an ant pat on my mind along with others....now you are with god and of course king....i will miss you dearly uncle chuck.....with love...nicki

Pat and family, Our prayers are for comfort and strength as you mourn the loss in your family. I will forever remember a smiling Chuck...trying to convince me that the Redskins suck. I was always on my toes around Mr. Chuck. Always smiling. Smiling at his wife. He is still smiling, now at the face of God. You will see him again and then it'll be for eternity. We send our love, Dave, Helene, Chris and Scott Domi

I Love you Dad. No more pain and suffering. It took me a few days to realize, that you're in a better place now. You're also with grandpa and grandma McQuaid, Aunt Betty, and Uncle Vince. All of you celebrating together with our wonderful God. Rest in Peace Dad. Until we meet again. Love your son David...
