Holly, I'm so sorry honey about the passing of your father. He was a man with such a kind heart. I remember when we had trouble with the fire when the woods had caught on fire back years ago, he was right over there to help us with the little loader. Always smiling as he would go by to go to work. Know that your dad loved you dearly, and is watching down on you. Stay strong honey. The Yanceys

Uncle John and Aunt June, Words are not enough to tell you both how sorry I am. Kim and Jay will never be forgotten. Whenever I think of summers that I spent with them on granny buck's farm I smile and laugh at the memories. Giggng for frogs, sneaking cigarettes from granny's night stand, puking after trying some of granddaddy's chewing tobacco. I am crying now..... thinking that God has two wonderful angels. Kim and Jay will live inside of my heart forever as two beautiful people that God blessed this world with. Sherri Childrey Glascock
