Uncle Geoffrey, I still can't believe you are no longer with us. It feels like yesterday when you left for the states, Little did I know that I will never see you again. You always found a way to make us all laugh. I remember the way you used to call me "shelly namulele" and do that funny dance, and the way you'd teach me how to speak the American way when you called. I am really gonna miss you. I pray that you are in a better place. Till we meet again. I will never forget you. Love you always. MYSRI Your Niece, Mwanto a.k.a shelly namulele

Geoffrey, I have known you all my life, you have been a great uncle and friend, you left Africa so many years ago but I never thought I would not see you again. I treasure the few times we spoke over the phone, you always managed to make me laugh reminding me that no matter how far you are the love I have for you never reduced and neither did your sense of humour. The day you died, God blessed me with a son that very morning, everytime I look at him, I see you. It really hurts that you had to leave us. Love you always and forever. Rest in Peace your niece, Kalumba.

Geoffrey: God put people into each other lives for a reason. I am honored to have been your wife. You have been an amazing husband as well as a father. The love for your family and friends have been a lesson for me. You were right everyone is God children and we need to live the day as God wanted us to do. Even when you were sick you kept your spirit up as well as your faith. You never complain for nothing. Now you're in heaven with the angels and I hope you will live into eternal peace. We have been through many obstacles and we survived them. This is another that we will make it through. May you rest in peace until the day we meet in heaven and we can find each other again.Your loving wife,Althea Muyunda

Geoffrey: Trying to find the right words to say in a condensed form is hard for someone who has meant so much to others. I first say thank you. Thank you for the love that you have for my sister. Thank you for not only being her husband, but her best friend. I was truly blessed to have a brother-in-law such as you. You loved life. Though you would most times sit quietly in a room, your eyes would always light up when you spoke of your home and your sons in Zambia. The love you had for your sons was truly priceless. Even when your body was failing you, it was your desire to go home to see your sons and to let them know the love you have for them. It blesses me so to know that you accepted Jesus Christ as your Savior. May you find eternal rest in His arms. You fought a good fight Geoffrey. You can now be a soldier for the Lord. We miss you but the fond memories will never be forgotten. Orlando and Mary Edwards In God's care you rest above, In our hearts you rest with love. Memories of you are ours to keep, Our words are few but our love is deep (author unknown)
