Tiahza Lionel Green

DEC 7, 1982 - AUG 10, 2010

Tiahzá Lionel Green, of Culpeper, died Tuesday, August 10, 2010 at University of Virginia Hospital. He was born December 7, 1982 in Culpeper Virginia to Barbara Pollard and Timothy Banks.

Tiahzá was a wonderful young man with a depth of character that was detected when you became a close friend to him. He possessed a strong and infectious love for life, his family, and his children, who meant the world to him. He was dedicated to bettering himself and being a good father and role model for his children. His hobby and passion was the sport of football. During the quiet hours, he studied the bible and page upon page of his writings and personal notes on the scriptures were found among his belongings. In spite of the mistakes mankind makes, Tiahzá found the answers to unresolved issues in his quest for knowledge of the Bible.

A lover of music and very artistic, Tiahzá also possessed a desire to travel. He has now made the most amazing trip and finalized his travel arrangements to his eternal resting place in Heaven. His final desire would be to meet all his family and friends in that new dwelling place.

In addition to his mother and father, he is survived by Odessa Fuller, grandmother, Daeshaeuna Nibblins, Jovonna Anderson, daughters, Tamiza Green and Tavon Green, son. Also surviving are Latitia Green, Sheena Green, Tychenica Green, and Erika Pollard, sisters; Sheina Lewis Katrina Utz, Shalandra Nibblins, step-sisters, Christopher Mallory, step-brother, Carmalita Green, niece; Lyndon Rankin, nephew; Anitra Johnson, Teri Taylor, Priscilla Taylor, and Tiffany Taylor, god-sisters. Aunts and uncles surviving are Teresa Banks, Janet Frye, Mattie Payne, David and Karen Marriner, and Clinton and Carolyn Banks, and Loretta Jenkins, Bonnie Johnson special aunt. In addition to family members, Tiahzá is also survived by a large number of friends. He is preceded in death by Robert L. and Mary M. Green, grandparents.

A celebration of his life will be held Wednesday, August 18, 2010 at Found and Sons Chapel at 2 pm with The Rev. James Mack officiating.

You were a great person, and will truly be missed. I pray GOD wraps his arms around your family and let them know that your body is gone but your spirit will live on..I know your kids will know what a great person you were because it seems you were loved by many and they will keep you alive. RIP till we see you again.

Looking back through the years, we had so much fun together! No matter what was going on at the time, you would be there if needed. It seems that God needs you more right now for something very important. I know you will be watching over all of us at every moment, and waiting with open arms when we come home as well. With all my heart and love cuz, I will greatly miss you!!!!
