Donna Reid Secrist: Hi! This is Hazel. I remember David's Aunt Dorothy and I think I vaguely remember you. Please leave some contact information with Found and Sons. I would love to know more of David's past. Thanks for the posting and your support. I know it will be hard for awhile, but at least he's not suffering anymore.

Hazel and David, Jr., This is Donna Reid Secrist, David's first cousin on his mother's side. We came to Virginia to escape a severely abusive stepfather/husband and lived with my Aunt Edna and Uncle John, David's parents. We were very close, Dorothy and David being my only cousins. Even after we moved away, Aunt Edna, Dorothy, and David came to visit us after Uncle John's death. I have many good memories of our childhood. David sold his "Grit" newspaper on the corner every Friday in Warrenton. David also loved music and we would all buy the Hit Parade song books and learn all the words to the songs and sing them. The last time I saw him was at my mother's funeral and then 3 weeks later at his sister Dorothy's (my mother's namesake) funeral. We all had a hard life, but had loving parents and lots of fun, too. My sister is also deceased so I am the last living family member from my mother's side of the family in this generation. God bless you and comfort you in your loss. I feel David is busy greeting all our loved ones - mom, dad, my mom, his 2 sisters, my sister and our grandparents. Donna
