Wendi Covington (Friend Of Mildred) posted:

To the Family of little Hailey----Although I dont know you personally---I know little Hailey's grandmother Mildred. I am very sorry for the loss of your little angel. I pray that you will find comfort in knowing that she is now with Jesus. Being a grandma myself, I cannot even start to imagine the pain and emptiness you are going through. My thoughts and prayers are with you as you endure this sad time. God Bless each of you.

Some people dream of angels, the two of you got to hold one. Hailey Ann was in your arms for a short while but she will be in our hearts forever. "Death leaves a heartache, That no one can heal Love leaves a memory, That no one can steal... "Our deepest sympathy in the time of sorrow.

My heart aches for the pain the two of you must feel losing such a precious young baby. I am still in shock over such a tragic loss of my baby niece. Faith consists in believing in God even when it is beyond the power of reason to believe. You have to believe that Hailey Ann was here for a reason and that the connection the two of you shared with her could never be broken not even in death. She has Honey and Papaw taking care of her now and you will see her again. This will be a hard road but your friends and family will be there every step of the way to support you.

My words are not adequate to express the sorrow I feel losing my little granddaughter Hailey. Life does not make sense and losing someone so young and precious is tragic. There is no pain more far-reaching and deeper than losing a precious baby. My heart and prayers go out to you David and Tina at this most difficult time. You know I will always be here to help you both along the way in any way I can. I love you both and we will miss little Hailey Ann.

Losing a child is a hurt that is so high, you can't get over it. It is so low, you can't get under it. It is so wide you can't get around it. Therefore, you must go through that door. Keep the faith David and Tina. If there is anything I can do or if you need to talk, I will be here always. I love you both and we will all miss little Hailey. She is your guardian angel now.
