When I got the news about Tyler, I could only remember him as a super tan little boy at my pool, with fluorescent floaties on his arms. Just like the rest of the kids with moms from Melrose. Rachel, Tyler, the girls and I all have wonderful memories together as children. All of our mothers kids did. Only beautiful memories with Tyler and Rachel. I can speak for all of my sisters, and my father when I say our deepest condolences. Alexis Canto

For the short time we were blessed to know Tyler, he was so kind and gentle. He talked about loving the beach. My husband called him 'Al-qaeda' because of his beautiful brown tone and his curly, long locks of hair. I said he looked like Jesus with his beard and sweet gentle eyes. He always had a smile on his face. He worked for my husband and for a friend of ours. He was a hard worker and never let us down. We will miss his laidback ways and his kind spirit. We are blessed to have known him. We wish we had known him longer.
