Elizabeth Shields Jessup

APR 14, 1919 - SEP 20, 2013

Elizabeth Shields Jessup, 94, died Friday, September 20, 2013 in Manassas, VA. She was born April 14, 1919 in High Point, NC, one of five children to the late Harvey and Fay Shields.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband, John Ivey Jessup, Jr.; her dear son, Rev. John Ivey Jessup, III; and her siblings, William Shields, her twin, Margaret Harvey, Emmogene Johnson and Charles Shields, as well as her precious grandson, Francis W. Cochran, III.

Mrs. Jessup was a devoted member of First Baptist Church in Greensboro, NC for nearly 70 years. She was involved in many bible studies, WMU, circle, and Sunday school classes; holding many offices in each group. As her children advanced through school, she was involved in the PTA, holding several offices there.

She was known for her fabulous pound cake and banana bread which she often took to the sick and shut-ins. As she declined in the last several years, she showed great faith and dignity throughout.

She is survived by her daughter, Fay Cochran and her husband, Francis W. and her grandson, John Wilson Cochran and his wife, Rev. Laura Doud Cochran.

A memorial service will be held on Friday, October 4, 2013 at 2 pm at Church of the Epiphany Anglican, 13515 Dulles Technology Drive, Herndon, VA 20171.

A graveside committal service will be held on Monday, October 14, 2013 at 3:30 pm at Forest Lawn Cemetery in Greensboro, NC.

Found and Sons Funeral Chapel of Culpeper is serving the family.

Lib Jessup was the ideal elegant lady, beautiful in every way, She was always my friend even though we lived far apart. We shared a lot of good memories at FBC Greensboro. Lib supported her church, her family and her friends over the years. I pray her family will find strength and peace as they remember a wonderful Christian woman. With love for all the family from Clara Brindefield Huff.
