Tammy Cooke posted:

I remember visiting Patrick right after his new "work" hair cut. His long pony tail hung from the bull horn and I almost cried. Tracey comforted and asked me to settle, he was still sore from the new cut. I loved his hair from a far and this memory will stick for a long time. I loved being in your wedding. Patrick was a great conversationalist, cook, fixer and overall, an awesome host. He had a way of always making me feel welcome and even missed. I never thought I would have to miss him, but he is free and my time at White Oak now will be a little longer. Patrick had my back a time or two when no one else would've ever offered, and I am forever grateful. Words are inadequate and I love you man, rest in peace Patrick.
