My deepest condolences to all of your family. Mrs. Calvert was a beautiful woman inside and out. There is no doubt that she is to the right hand of Jesus as she loved the Lord with all of her heart. That should bring comfort to all who miss her. It was a pleasure and a privilege to know Eva. She will be missed dearly. Luke 1:28 Respectfully, Reverend Heather Nungesser

My condolences to the Calvert family. Our visits were few over the past several years, the last being at the fifty year reunion at Baxter Seminary. Being as close as the two of you were in your growing years, time and circumstances had kept you apart, but never forgotten. Unfortunately Waurine is in advanced stages of Alzheimer's and would not understand. May God bless you all. Dick & Waurine (Denny) House Grandville, MI

I had the honor to know Mrs. Calvert and enjoyed our many conversations. I met her at Culpeper Regional Hospital when my mother was a patient there on 9/11. Mrs. Calvert was watching the tv in front of the Pink Ladies snack bar. I did not know her, however, she turned around and gave me a hug and so began our friendship which continued to WalMart pharmacy. She was a loving, caring, brave and sometimes impulsive lady who when she decided something, well that was that, there was no changing her mind, but she would say, "I'll think about it." Please accept my sincere condolences. She will be spending Christmas in heaven this year, and she would not have it any other way. Love and prayers to each of you.

Rejoicing for our sister in Jesus who has finished this course and with Jesus in victory... grieving the loss for the family... having lost my mother I know how it is ... rejoicing and sad... comforting to know we never say goodbye forever in Jesus... Our prayers are for you to be blessed with a wonderful memory and wisdom to discern and be comforted as only our Lord can do...

My memories of Mrs. Calvert is one of respect, nurturing and love. Growing up, I can remember her being very strong and active at Church. On any given Sunday, she would have us kids over to run loose and just be kids. She would always tell my grandmother; "Now Millie, don't worry about anything, they will be fine. But, if anything does happen, we'll call (and then she would smile)." I think this made my grandmother more nervous, as she knew how accident prone I was (my cousin not so much). Between the fences, a pond and rolling hillsides; my grandmother knew a call was coming. Luckily, nothing ever happened. One of my fondest memories, was when I came to visit and while in one of the back rooms (just off the living room/dinning room area); we talked for quite a while. Upon completion of our conversation, we both were crying. We hugged...I gave her kiss and told her how much I loved her. She smiled back and said "I love you too". To Mr. Calvert, Robert, David, Randall, Clay and entire Calvert family...my thoughts and prayers are with you all. I thank you so much for allowing me to know this wonderful and gracious lady. All my love, Vanessa (Snyder) Converse
