The Slaughter Family would like to truly give our condolences to the Hertz family for the lost of whom we knew as Coach Hertz. He coached Jerome Slaughter in FPYC little league from 1987-1988 and it was a great experience. Coach Hertz was a great positive role model to Jerome Slaughter and quickly gained the respect of our family. We will always remember Coach Hertz for the great man he was and are forever thankful to his family for being the additional support system.
