Brenda and I were cousins. She was also a dear friend although we lost touch with each other for a long time. Avery and Cloe were always soooo special to me and so was all the family. I guess I most remember Phillip and Rodney because they were closer to my age. Brenda was always smiling and reminded me so much of her Mom. I will see ya when I get there, Brenda!
Love you

I will always and forever remember the times Brenda and I had together. I first met Brenda in 1972 when she and I worked together at Peoples Drug which is now known as CVS in Manassas. We remained friends for the next 38 years. She and I were roommates after she graduated high school. I remember her getting hired at IBM and how pleased she was. I was with her when she married Danny and remember when he proposed and how happy she was I remember the birth of Kristen and how happy they were to have a baby girl. I can say that was the happiest I ever saw her. We sure had some happy years that I will always treasure. She was a one of a kind friend. I know her faith has taken her to that peaceful place where she will always have that beautiful smile and kind heart. She never failed to tell me everytime I saw and talked to her how proud she was of Kristen and how thankful she was for the care she had given her, and Kristy I want you to know there is a special place in our heart for you from each of us that were lucky enough to have known your mother. I will never forget one of the dearest that I ever had as a lifetime friend and her family. They have each and everyone always treated me like family and I love each of you for that. I know Brenda in is a peaceful place now and there will always be a part of her with each of us. I will miss and love her always.

Call me selfish but I miss you, the kids miss you, your family misses you...but, we are understanding as well, you're in a much better place - no pain, no sorrow, no suffering. You will now hear our prayers, you will help us heal, you will help lift our spirits when we are feeling sad and lonely, you will keep us safe - you are our angel and for that I am grateful. I miss you, I love you. I'll talk to you later.

I met my best friend many years ago. We've shared many laughs and crys over the years. It is so hard to believe that we'll not be able to share those things again. Brenda was the most caring, giving individual I have ever met. Brenda, I love you and will miss you forever. My life will not be the same without you in it. May you rest in peace.....

I met Brenda (and Vickie) when I had to rehome my 5 Parrots due to my inability to care corectly for the birds, because of my newly diagnosed Spinal Deterioration. The Ladies came to my home in Leesburg, VA in 2008, to see if they might take two of my Cockatoos. Brenda fell in love with Sam, and surprizingly Sam was very curious and accepting of her as well. I am certain it was the softness and charm that exuded from Brenda, her warm and instantly trusting personality. Over the years we had kept loosley in touch, talking, emailing, about how well Sam was adjusting, some of his antics, and how her battle with the Pancreatic Cancer was going. She was ever the optomist, ever hopeful,and ever trusting, that God was at work in her life at all times. My Mom was also a victim of Pamcreatic Cancer, we talked of the lack of progress made in the cure, and each of us determined to get the word out via emails to Friends, and Political contacting. For the comparatively short time I knew brenda, I was struck with her heroism in the face of a tough battle, and in her Faith. I am priveleged to have been an instrament of bringing a little winged joy into her life, and being able to call her a Friend.Cathie Mckenzie
