My family and I have known and admired Ruth for over 25 years. All I can say is what a blessing it was to have had her in our lives. She would always greet you with a smile with her eyes sparkling. She was warm, patient, kind and a light to the world. Her whole life she worked hard, was an amazing homemaker and knew the blessings of family. She spoke often of her parents, siblings and children with gratitude and admiration. She was so proud of her children. My family and I will miss her deeply. God bless you and your family Ruth Geil, sweet friend. All our love,Mollie (and David Ketelhutand Harriet Moore)
