Mr. Johnson, You were such a wonderful teacher. Freshman year can always be hard because of the change in school, but your class was always so wonderful. I made some life long friends in that class that are still dear to me to this day. I am just going to write down a few words that trigger some great memories, if you were in that class you may remember. Diabetes, ebay, Jake Preli and first student given referral ever, reading out loud, making cool beats, I hate you all equally, Hilary Kock, Johnson Miles, Landon Winslow, To Kill a Mocking Bird, and sarcasm. You were such a wonderful man and teacher. Thank you for all you did and all the lessons you taught! I will truly miss you! Erin

James was my 1st. cousin. I haven't seen him for about 30 yrs. Most of my memories of him were when he was pre 10 yrs old. In my memory he was a very handsome, smart and well behaved child. I'm sure he will be missed by many. God bless!!!
