I couldn't have asked for a better person to call my grandad. Since the day I was born I was your little girl and that will never change. I know you are with Iya now... But losing both of you has been the hardest thing of my life. I love you so much. Please continue to look over me.

I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Curtis. He was one of our customers that came in to work often and always had a story to tell. He would tell me of his truck driving career and all of the places he visited. Mr. Curtis became one of my favorite customers and I will miss seeing him driving around in his little blue pickup truck. God Bless you Mr. Curtis and your family. May you rest in peace.
