My sympathy to the family. I met Beverly when I started with Spotsylvania County in 1993. She was a wonderful person, she would always go out of her way to help you. She was and is a true angel. May God be with you.

I count myself fortunate to have been a son-in-law to Beverly and Howard Sheldon. Together they were quite a team, a couple, soul-mates. They treated me like another son and were very supportive of me in my vocation and in my life. The last 21 years of my life have been truly amazing because of the Sheldons' daughter, my wife Lexi, being part of my world; an added bonus in those years has been my relationships with Bev and Howard. Thanks be to God that the couple is back together again, watching us from heaven! David

My sincere sympathy to the family. Beverly was a very sweet and caring person and I valued our friendship very much. Loved her dry sense of humor and had many laughs together through the years. I know she is with the Lord and reunited with her beloved Howard. Howard and Beverly's marriage was an inspiration and model for all who came in contact with them. Nancy Sims
