A year has passed since that awful day
The call to say you'd gone away
I stood in shock and disbelief
And did my best to hide my grief.
I drove with tears right to your home
And prayed I'd heard wrong on the phone
Instead I saw you laying there
At once my life seemed so unfair.
I've cried each day and some nights too
And wondered how I'd make it through
My life was changed forevermore
The day I walked right through that door.
I know that life must carry on
And day by day the fear is gone
You'll always be a part of me
I know one day your face I'll see.
Love and miss you always babe!!

Well, it's been 3 weeks now and I miss you just as much as I did the first day - will the pain I feel ever go away? Will the tears ever stop? Will my mind stop thinking about you? On my way to work, during my breaks and at night, I still catch myself starting to call you on the phone - it's like it's all a dream still. You are gone, but never ever forgotten. I love you.

Fred, Freddy, My 2nd dad - Thank you for everything you have done for me through out your journey here on earth! I cherish all of the memories I have shared with you and your lovely family today and every day of the rest of my life. I remember all of the talks we had and all of the times you would say you are such a pretty girl ! I remember riding down the back road with you and rachel and we were FLYINGGGGGGGGGGGGGGG AND rach kept saying its ok dad knows this road like the back of his hand, we will be fine! EVEN though I was afraid for dear life, I know freddy would never let anything happen to his two girls! I remember eating at the little pizza shop with you big lots and you had shrimp pasta I think and I remember when you took rach, masoni and I to go pick up a couch in front royal and then we got on the back and you sped around the parking lot with us on the back an we were holding on for dear life, I think we all ended up in the same corner of the trailer by the time you were done ! I remember just hanging out in the house with you and we had the best of times, you always had us laughing! I remember all of the mcdonalds runs rach and i would go on and we would always bring you back a hamburger and fries!! THank you for all of the SUnDays you brought home A LOT OF tacos for us from Taco bell:)Remember the fire pit night, we had a HUGEEEE fire going thanks to you and we all had soo much fun!!! IT was so HOT though!! you kept taming the fire ! I remember when you would sneak upstairs in the middle of the night to the fridge too:)HehehehehWhat I remember most about you is that YOU WOULD DO ANYTHING FOR ANYONE IN THE WHOLE WIDE WORLD IF They asked you too! YOU had the most beautiful, kind heart soul out of anyone I knew! To My Best Friend, I write this with such a heavy heart. Our paths crossed 33 years ago and we became the best of friends. We were almost inseparable, we worked together, played together, and we grew together. We were each others best men at our weddings. We were there for each other through good times and bad for so many years, I have so many great memories. Where did the time go? I guess when the kids arrived, our priorities changed and we had to become responsible adults. We absorbed ourselves with making a better life for our children. Where did the time go? I have thought of our times together on so many occasions and I will cherish the memories of our times together forever. I will miss you my friend. May you rest in peace
