Mrs. Hoyt, prayers for you and family. Remembering the blast we had on the church trip to Sight and Sound. He carried a wonderful tune during the old hymns that were sang. We have grown apart over the years, but still have fond memories of fellowship between our families. From softball games to get togethers at your house singing and enjoying each other's company. Two of my girls remember Jerry and the nick name they gave him (hotdog) while he played with them at the ballfield. Jerry was truley a blessed man and we all are also, in having the friendship and memories of him and your families. May God continue to bless you. David Lambert
