Leonard Leroy Holmes Jr.

JUL 18, 1955 - FEB 27, 2011

Leonard Leroy Holmes affectionately known as “Leroy” was born on July 18, 1955 in King George County, Virginia to Leonard and Beatrice Holmes. He peacefully departed this life on February 27, 2011 at King George Heritage Hall Nursing Home, after a courageous battle with cancer.

He attended King George County Public School. Then, later in life he made his profession doing concrete and working various other jobs. Leroy enjoyed being with family and friends especially his grandson whom he called “Rock.” He and Rock had a special bond, it was more like a father and son relationship instead of grandfather and grandson. When he picked Rock up the first place they went was Norma Jean’s house, because Leroy loved to eat, and so did Rock. Leroy knew that his sister or his brother-in-law, Mitchell would always go out of their way to cook him something good to eat.

Leroy was a loving father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend. He was preceded in death by Leonard Holmes (Stepfather), James Ford Sr. (Father) and two brothers, Ralph Streets and Clarence Ford.

Leroy’s hobbies were drawing, painting and making jewelry boxes.

Leroy leaves behind fond memories to be cherished by his mother, Beatrice Holmes, of King George; two daughters, Beatrice Carr(Quintin) and Latina Smith, of Fredericksburg; a special grandson, Juleahl Childs (Rock), of Caroline County; six sisters, Barbara Howard (Darnell) of Caroline County, Shirley Washington of Baltimore, Lillian Clarke (John) of Stafford County; a special sister, Norma Jean Conway (Mitchell), Dothea Saunders (Melvin) & Doretha Ford, all of King George; six brothers, Ernest Scott & William T. Holmes, both of King George, Augustus Holmes, of Fredericksburg, James Ford (Irma) of Spotsylvania County, Charles Streets, of King George & William Johnson (Stephanie) of Upper Marlboro; four uncles, Purcell Scott (Diane), Kenneth Scott (Marcellus), Herman Scott (Joyce) & Odell Scott; a special niece, Marlo Conway;

Uncle Leroy no words can describe at this time how much i miss you so. All the talks we had, going out to eat, or just riding around visiting people espically Poker Jim. You don't know how you miss those things until it's gone. An boy do i miss you. It seems like yesterday me and you went to the Dr, and that's when we 1st found out about your cancer, an now look you are gone in less than a year. It's hard for me to believe you are truly gone. Those Italian sub we use to eat at Sheetz are still good as ever. An every time I stop in to get one I always think of you. Uncle Leroy you was a wonderfull Uncle and I love you for that. There is noting in this world you wouldn't do for me, and I wouldn't do for you either. We were like peanut butter and jelly we were always stuck together. I'm glad I always told you how much I love you and appericate all you have ever done for me. I don't think there is a time, when we talk, I would always say I love you unk.(short for uncle) and you would say I love you to Niecy. That's the kind of relationship we had. So Uncle Leroy may you rest in peace. Until we meet again.Love Your favorite Niece, Marlo conway
