I was so very sorry to hear about Aunt Nita. I remember as a child, having great times at her & Uncle Jr's home, eating lots and running around playing with all the cousins, those were some of the best times. Aunt Nita had wonderful, easy going spirit. she was beautiful inside and out. Sorry we can't be there, but we send all our love and Prayers to our family in Va. Love to all, Angela Sharp

I loved picnics at Aunt Nita's and Uncle Jr's house. All of the Aunts, Uncles, and cousins running around enjoying the sunshine, great food, and the parachuter's dropping in the field. Aunt Nita had such an easy going, loving, way. Love to all the family! Theresa
