My grandma was a special lady. She was kind generous and loving. We all have special memories that not even death can take away from us.I will treasure every moment that I had with her. She will forever live in my heart and I know that someday we will be together again until that day comes I will try to make her proud and be the person she knew I could be.

Linda Miller lit a candle in honor of Pearl.

Pearl was more to me than an employee. She has always been a very special person. I feel that I have known her all my life. She has always been there, and always will be. I have never seen her angry or in a bad mood. Because of the Special Person she was, Oh! she is going to be missed. Pearl, I will think of you everyday. You are now in a very special place. And you will be waiting for us. God Bless You, and all of your family and friends that love you. Linda Miller
