Michelle and Family, "When we see our friends die, we are moved through compassion and tenderness to weep for them and to mourn them-but in a spirit of tranquility and patience. We must profit from their departure, by preparing very gently and confidently for our own." I shall always keep her in my heart and thoughts, till we meet again....."Tenui Nec Dimmitam."

My fondest memory of Lois is her love for her family, especially grandchildren, Michael and Maddie. Her car was equipped with car seats and all. Thank you for sharing a bit of your life with me. I will always remember packing into Michelle's car (you, me and Stan) for lunches and the occasional shopping. Rest in peace Lois, you will be missed. Shannon Harrison

I met Lois at DHS as many did, and was fond of her from our first encounter. Lois was quick to offer help, and did it with a smile. Her easy going way made her easy to approach, know, like, and trust in her. She often spoke of her grandchildren in a way that you just knew that she loved them with all her heart. She had so many pictures of Michael and Madison you would think they were her own! My condolences go to her family and friends. She will be missed as a colleague and friend.

Before I began working at the Agency, Lois and I exchanged emails and phone conversations as I waited for my clearance to come forward. We shared office experiences and stories about our grandchildren. On my visits to the hospital, we share more stories. Lois will always remain in my heart.
