Our favorite memories with Audrey were at Christmas, we would all get together at her and Trips house. It was just a small gathering but Audrey loved having everybody together and sharing gifts. We shared many laughs together, I will forever remember her laugh it was soft and her eyes would light up at the same time. I only know one thing for sure, Audrey will be missed by all of us. She was a amazing women that loved her family and friends with all her heart. Love Bill and Suerena
