Liz Audet Green

JUL 11, 1965 - JUN 8, 2011

Elizabeth (Liz) Audet Green, 45, of Fredericksburg, died peacefully at her home on Wednesday, June 8, 2011.

Liz was born on July 11, 1965 in Washington, D.C. She grew up in McLean, Virginia where she attended St. Luke's Catholic School until high school where she attended Langley High in McLean, VA. Liz initially was interested in chemistry when she attended Virginia Tech, but became more interested in people and their lives and switched her major to journalism. While covering a story on schools and troubled youth, she became interested in the work of school social workers. Liz went back to school, first at George Mason University in Fairfax and then at Virginia Commonwealth University where she took her Masters in Social Work. In her professional life she worked in psychiatric group homes, as an in home counselor for the Rappahannock Community Service Board, as a social worker at the juvenile detention center, and her last 11 years were spent at the Regional Alternative School in Fredericksburg as the school social worker.

When not working, Liz was busy raising her daughter, Caitlin Green, her three step sons, Michael, Ryan, and Sean Green, and helping her husband, Jim take care of his father when he came to live with the family due to his declining health. Liz liked all things family; meals together, camping, boating, vacationing at the Outer Banks, and raising Golden Retriever puppies. She was involved in her community not only professionally, but as a volunteer Brownie Scout leader at Ferry Farm Elementary. She also became interested in spirituality issues, participating in several local spiritual groups. Her most personal spiritual moments prepared her for facing her cancer and its terminal diagnosis. Liz came to know that life, even in death, offers only love and peace.

Liz is survived by her mother, Frances Audet (formerly Hogue) of McLean, Virginia; her husband, Jim Green of Fredericksburg; her daughter, Caitlin and her three step sons, Michael, Ryan, and Sean, all of Fredericksburg; her sister, Andree Duvarney of McLean; her brothers, Michael and Mark Audet of Richmond, Virginia, and her twin sister, Adrienne Miner of Denver, Colorado. She also has many surviving brothers, sister's-in-law, uncles, aunts, cousins, nephews, and nieces.

Dear Audets and Greens,Liz and I were close friends for many years. We lost touch when I left Washington, but I never felt that we really lost touch. Things got hectic. I always made sure I knew how to contact her, but didn't, until yesterday when I learned that I was a month too late. I will never again wait for "just the right time" to get back in touch with someone I love. I think of Liz every time I am on the highway passing a truck. Do you remember that truck that hit her car? How unlikely was that? I think of Liz every time I pass a "Psychic Here" sign, because she and I wrote a story about road side psychics. I think about Liz every time I go to my basement, which is often, because I have a photo of us on the wall down there (where I keep all meaningful photos) from our trip to Ireland, where we had such fun and where she was so happy to see her relatives' stomping grounds. I so wish I had been able to say goodbye to her and am miserable that I didn't take the time to say hello. Liz was and will be one of my most favorite people in the world. We had some great adventures together and while I have missed her these years, it just never occurred to me that she wouldn't be there. I continue to miss her tremendously.Betsy Dance

It is where I got my dog and sometimes I just go to visit the animals. I also always try to donate or buy something to help them. Today I did and added in extra in her name. Just to let you know. I can see her smiling now.

I had the pleasure of working with Liz for about 4 years. She has shown herself to be a very dedicated, caring person. Liz, not only, selflessly offered herself, through counseling and support, to her students, she did the same for her co-workers. More specifically, she helped me. Liz was able to look beyond her own ordeal and help me deal with the realization that my mother, too, was now in the fight. For that, and for many other reasons, I am thankful for having Liz in my life.

To Liz's Loved Ones, Liz and I were co-workers at the RAEP. She had the rare gift of making you feel more of yourself and a better self when you were in her presence. It's a very good thing she graced the world by becoming a social worker :) Your grief is heavy now and that burden does get lighter. Remember that the loss is a temporary one. Liz is in a wonderful place. You all and she shall continue to be in my prayers. God bless.

Liz & I worked & played together during our time at GMU, where we shared duties at the student newspaper, classes, and many beers and late nights. I admired and respected her. Reading her obit, I find I still do...what a wonderful life of service you led, dear Liz. May you rest in peace and may your family find solace in your everlasting light. God bless you. Liz, I will remember us laughing together about how silly life can be and, when our egos got wrapped around the axle about something, we'd realize "Oh, yea! It's all an illusion anyway!" Then, we'd laugh some more. I will miss you very, very much. Your friend, Andrea Giehl
