So sorry to hear about Bettys passing. Betty and Paul were so good to us when we moved to Fredericksburg to work under Paul for Besser. They shared dinners, time, conversations and even baby sitting Jess and Ben. We couldn't have had a better start to our days. One funny memory is when they were in our backyard playing with the kids, Ben swung a plastic bat and hit Paul in a vulnerable spot. Betty laughed till she cried. They will always have a special place in our hearts. Eric and Pam Krebs
