Mom You instilled so much integrity and leadership in each of us...You Know... ALWAYS Hold your head high- No matter what you are facing in the challenges of Life. " Your strength will get you through it" You encouraged each of us to be as strong - morally, intellectually - as well as physical! You knew that a little hard work wouldn't hurt anyone. You worked very hard to provide for our family .Thanks Mom, for the encouragement of Strength and Drive that you shared with each of us.See You Later, Mom. With Much Love,Joyce

The loss of a love one is so hard to face,you just want to hide, go some where and escape! But death is something,we all must go through,I know it's hard,when it's someone you loved and knew.Just know now, she is in a better place, no more hurt or pain shall she face. It seems unfair and yes this is true, but she is in Heaven nowwatching over you!God has called her home to rest!!And she's being well taken care of Because God knows best!RIP Shirley!!

ReneeReal sorry to hear about your mom. My mother called me yesterday and told me. We did not know, my mom called up there and talked to John. I loved Aunt Shirley, I always told her and I were alot alike and I had the same temper, and she would laugh.

Renee Demmer posted:

I love you mom. I thank you for all you gave up for our family. I will never forget the magic you brought to holidays year after year. The fun we had, the conversations and love we shared. I thank you mom for helping to mold me into the person I am today. For your guidance and encouragement, your trust, belief and support in my life, has made me a strong, loving and independent person. I will miss you dearly, but I am at total peace with where you are and I will see you again. I love you.
