The Hensley Family... wishes to express our sadness in the passing of our dear friend and neighbor, Maria. Maria was always a breath of sunshine and a joy to all who knew her. Always smiling, always full of life. She knew no stranger and welcomed everyone. We shall all miss her, but never forget her. Our Love to Frank.

Such sadness in my heart. I was 8 years old when Frank Gallahan with his new family, came to live across the street from us on Potomac Avenue. Walter, Sonja and I went to the same schools. I remember Maria always had a smile to give. Sally Beavers
