Violet was a friend and a mentor to me. I drove Violet to our Quilt Guild meetings for a number of years. Not only did she give me valuable advice and inspiration for my quilting but we also shared a great friendship. I will miss her dearly but I know from our conversations that she is happy in Heaven today with her husband George and playing with her dog Molly. God Bless you Violet.

Violet was very kind to us when we moved to Virginia from Michigan. It was a very hot August day in Fredericksburg and my dad was helping us move in. She lived across the street and brought over homegrown tomato sandwiches and homemade lemonade for us. It was such a refreshing treat on that very hot summer day 32 years ago. Debbie Gladden

This is a quilt that was started by Violet, and finished by Melissa Felts. Violet loved to quilt.
