My memories of Paul, setting at the kitchen table reading the paper each morning when we visited. Helping to string beans and when I made candy he would unwrap the papers from the candy I needed for the pretzels. His glasses setting on his nose as he did it. Paul you will be sadly missed. Loved you and will miss you. Your sister-in-law Betty Lou

Death is nothing else but going home to God, the bond of love will be unbroken for all eternity. ~ Mother Teresa ~ Dear Joyce and Family, Thoughts and prayers are sent to all of you at this very sad time. I remember Paul as a good neighbor and friend who could always be found working in his yard and tending to his garden. It was a privilege to know this man who sacrificed so much in service to our country. I enjoyed listening to his many stories. He will be missed. May he rest peacefully now. With deepest sympathy, Susan and family

Dad, I will always admire and honor your work ethic and bravery. The bravery I saw the last 6 months of your life was my opportunity to see the courage you had in Korea and Vietnam up close and personal. I will always remember your fight and the moments we shared. I am thankful for the special moments you and mom shared that past 6 months as the two of you worked day and night together in hopes of beating cancer and to prolong your life. As you enter the gates of heaven in the peaceful comfort of our saviors arms, I promise to intensify my efforts to be the best provider for my family and father to my children I can possibly be. You will be greatly missed my dear father.
