Rhonda Hope, Josh and family, I was so sorry to hear of Linda's passing and so sorry that I wasn't able to be at her service. I am in Connecticut helping Jonathan and Jenny move to Illinois to their new church but my thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time. Linda has been my friend and neighbor for over 50 years and it will be very strange to look over and know she's not there but she is all better now. I will keep you all in my prayers. Robin

We were so sorry to read of Linda's passing. We'll always remember the many nights spent down at the old home place during our youth and the many years of friendship we enjoyed at the bowling alley. She was such a nice person. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this time of sadness. Dean and Carla Harding
