I am a friend of Jane's from high school, and have been praying for June and the Family. My heart is heavy with sorrow for your loss, and at the same time, so thankful to God for her beautiful, precious life. May God and His angels hold you so close today and every day! May you feel the Lord's tender mercies washing over your heart and bringing healing, grace, and strength. You will remain in my prayers. With love and blessings, Heather Tutwiler, St. Louis, MO
