I didn't get to know RJ personally, but I saw how helpful he was with his mother, I saw how loving he was with my grandson, Michael. I saw a very beautiful, loving and caring person who was loved by all who knew him. Rest in peace RJ

Word can't express how unreal it is that you are gone. We often take for granted that someone will be here today , tomorrow and always. We usually don't go around telling our loved ones how much we love them everyday and how much they mean to us. We never think that when we say goodbye it could be our last goodbye. My heart aches so badly. I loved you RJ like the big brother I never had. You were unlike anyone I had ever met. Always and completely yourself, never caring what other people thought of you. Having huge heart And being one of the sweetest most sensitive guys I knew, which I don't think you wanted everyone to know. You were so talented and creative. I realize that now more then ever. I took so much for granted and now I'll never be able to tell you how I truly love you and to thank you for every sweet and kind thing you did for me. RJ you will always remain on my mind and in my heart. I pray we will all be together again in heaven. I will miss you until we meet again.

Lit a candle and prayers to you and your family, RJ. Only met him last year at his mom's house. He made his mom smile--and she will need God's strength for this loss.
