I have nothing but wonderful memories of Nona she was my Mother in law and we enjoyed each other's company for so many years. She was always kind and generous and a wonderful cook,she made me food I had never had before and it was always amazing. I miss her and Dad but know one sweet day we will all be together again in the sweet by and by because of our faith and trust in Jesus,until then may Almighty God watch over all of our family.
