Mrs. Van Bastelaer was a companion of my fathers (Gerry Goldstein) at the Colonnades. They became close and she will be missed. I always looked forward to seeing her when I went there for a visit. I think it was because of the sparkle in her eyes and her kind smile.

Dear Frederic, Sheila and children, Lily has left you, Lily left us! She joined Xavier after months of struggle against the disease. We believe a lot to you and share your grief. We will keep the memory of the moments shared with Lily and Xavier during our stays in the USA. Kisses and love from Eveline, Pierre Van Bastelaer and their family in Belgium. Lily, I love you. You miss me. Be in peace. Eveline
