So sorry for the loss of this Great Man, Great Friend from the day I met him. He was not just a janitor he was the heart and soul of Pearl Sample. He loved those kids, mine included. He set out to help troubled kids by teaching them life lessons and mentoring them and he succeeded time and time again. I saw him in Walmart just a few weeks ago. Always a smile on his face. Chasity and I both loved him. Whenever I would have a bad day he always had words of wisdom at PS. It didn't matter who the Admins were, George Bowles was the constant in all the kids lives for his entire career. He proved you can make a difference no matter what your post was. His love for God was always present. I think God needed some help with Corey Clanagan in Heaven. George believed in Corey as much as I did and I like to think Corey was one of those who met him at the door. Yes, I can picture them up there together watching over this little town of Culpeper and all their loved ones. God Bless. Beverly & Harold Douglas & family.

Please understand that I am my wife's caregiver and must keep her doctors appointment on September 25 at 11:00 A.M.I have known Mr. George H. Bowles Sr. for more than forty years and had the privilege of working with him for nearly twenty years. I will always call him the brother I never had. Mr. Bowles was a giant of a man, a man of humility, of kindness, of love for his fellow man, a man who dearly loved his family and above all a man of God.Our working relationship was not of the norm, we worked hard together and we enjoyed making our work place pleasant. Although we carried out many playful pranks none were ever harmful to anyone. We shoveled a lot of snow, assembled and disassembled staging before Pearl Sample School had an auditorium, assembled furniture, you name it we did it. Throughout all of this we fostered a friendship for ever. My wife Betty remembers him with fondness. She read to students just before school dismissal and Mr. Bowles always made sure she could exit the parking lot safely.Our prayers are with his wife Vivian his children and family.GOD BLESS Bill Simms
