John Joseph Curran Jr.

MAY 31, 1932 - OCT 20, 2011

John J. “Jack” Curran, Jr., 79, of Heritage Hunt in Gainesville, Virginia, passed away peacefully at home on October 20, 2011.

He is survived by his wife of 56 years, Marlane; three sons, Michael, Christopher (wife Brooke) and John; a sister, Anne and five granddaughters; and was preceded in death by his son Jeffrey.

Mr. Curran was born and raised in Whitestone, Queens, NY. He graduated from St. Augustine H.S., St. John’s University (B.A.), Michigan State University (M.S.), and the University of Chicago (M.B.A.). He had a long and successful career in the flavor and fragrance industry in New York, Chicago and Minneapolis. He was extremely proficient with crossword puzzles, an excellent bridge player, a terrific bowler, an avid sports fan, a talented singer and a lousy golfer. He will be remembered by his family and friends as a loving and devoted husband, father, and grandfather, and a good humored companion.

He will be sorely missed by all.

A private memorial service will be held in several weeks.

Online condolences may be expressed to the family at www.foundandsons.com.

Gene And Peggy Cook posted:

We cherish the wonderful photos we have of Jack and Marlane at our annual Holiday Gala, and remember his beautiful voice singing the holiday songs. We hold the Curran family in our prayers and thoughts. Eugene and Peggy Cook (Heritage Hunt)
