Vernon & Elaine Edwards posted:

A treasured friend of Vern & Elaine. We cruised with Larry and Karen to Alaska in 2003 and became firm friends. Cruised with them again on a Trans-Atlantic, and met up with them in Paris, London and Las Vegas. A gentleman with a wonderful sense of humour, he will be sadly missed. Larry had a great take on politics which made a major impact on our many video calls - and gave me the opportunity to tease him some. Larry's food photography on a cruise made for some great laughs including the time we ordered him 6 deserts whilst he left the table to go for a smoke. We have hundreds of wonderful memories of Larry that we will treasure. We and Keith & Patsy will be holding our own Memorial to Larry on board ship tonight (as we are on a cruise at present) - complete with lightsticks, and will raise a glass of Merlot in honor of a great friend who will remain in our thoughts forever. Our sincere condolences go out to Karen, Joretta and all Larry's Family.

My sweet, brilliant borther was honored by these gentle thoughts and remeberances of him. You were, indeed, good friends; loyal and true. I will be forever grateful!
