I have just heard the news. My heart is sad for the family, Johnny delivered to my store for a couple years. He was the best and friendliest driver. I miss those early morning chats. God's blessings to you.

Always wearing a smile of welcome and a chuckle of good humor, Johnny will be remembered as a good man who lived to serve and help others, expecting nothing in return. We went to church with Johnny, Missy and the children and watched them grow up. Time has inserted its demand for change by this sudden loss. Many friends and all his family will miss him. He was an honorable man, loyal in his relationships and friendships, dedicated to his wife and children. My prayers and thoughts will be with you as you deal with this tragedy and begin to pick up the pieces to move forward. Lean on one another and allow the lessons learned through his life to bind you together and keep you together, bring you closer to one another and to God, whom he loved and served with pride. The moments will bring times of laughter, times of deep and unspoken sorrow, tears that threaten to drown the heart that is breaking, yet it is crucial to let the love you shared as a family continue to be the cornerstone from which you reach beyond the mist and fog of pain you find yourself in right now. Life will go on and you will find that he continues to live on in the choices you make as the result of the live he lived before you. May God bless you all and cover you in Grace during this sad time.

Missy & family, We want to send our deepest sympathy to you and your family on the loss of your husband. Johnny was a special brother in the Lord and he always had a smile on his face when we would see him out somewhere. He believed and cared so much for his family and for his love of God. He always seemed to be such a jolly person and always took time even though he was in a hurry to stop and chat for a little while. He was a great example of what God expects us all to become when we accept Him into our lives. We hope you will rest easy in knowing he is in God's arms now and that you will be with him again one day. We will continue praying for God to give you all strength and endurance in this time of sorrow. Johnny may be gone from this world but his memory will live on forever & always in your heart. God bless you all. Mark & Wilma Hanna.
