Top was my second 1st Sergeant. He was the best 1st Sergeant I had the honor to serve under. Always fair, and always willing to do whatever it takes to accomplish the mission. My only wish is I could have seen him one more time at our last reunion. I can recall playing sports for the Redlegs and he'd be up there on the hill cheering us on. I do not think he missed a game, and if he did it's because he was out of Berlin. Just so you know Top I will see you one more time on Saturday when my wife Pam and I ride our motorcycle with the American Flag flying off the back in your honor. You will know it's me coming and you will know it's me saying a prayer for you. Rest in peace Top, we will all miss you very much. Sincerely, Ron Winters

1SG Morrison was the C 94 Battery First Sergeant when I got to Berlin in 1985. He'd been there for awhile before that, so many of us had the honor to serve with him. He was a good man and a great leader and soldier. I had the pleasure of seeing him for the first time in nearly 25 years at a reunion in 2009 in Clarksville, and I'll be forever grateful for that opportunity. I was at first shocked that he remembered me, since I was a lowly private, fresh out of training when I got to Berlin. But then I realized that he didn't remember me because I was special, it was he who was special. I'll bet he remembered each and every soldier he served with. That's the kind of leader he was. RIP Top!

1SG Morrison was a leader of men. I credit so much of my US Army career to the examples that I learned from him. Top keep charging in the Lord's Army. I'm sure your already setting new standards.
