The best man to ever walk this earth, my hero, my daddy. No more pain, struggling to get in and out of a wheelchair, no more struggling to breathe. Fly high daddy.

I spent a lot of my teenage years around Jim. He was always kind, and I wished I had half of that for a father. He will be greatly missed and I send my deepest condolences to Susan, Julie, Kim and Beth..

Jim always seemed larger than life to me back in the skating rink days. I've never seen anyone more liked and respected. I'm happy to have known him and all of you for all these years. I don't think my brother could have had a better father in law and friend. Rest peacefully Jim, until we meet again...
