For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt into the sun? And what is it to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered? Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing. And when you have reached the mountain top, then you shall begin to climb. And when the earth shall claim your limbs, then shall you truly dance. So sorry for your loss Kim. I hope there is some solace in the words of Kahlil Gibran, Rebecca

I am beyond sorry for your loss. Please try to take some comfort in knowing that Allyson is with her loving Grandmother now. Virginia welcomed Allyson to Heaven with open arms and tears as Allyson ran to her. Allyson is now playing with, tripping over and loving on countless fur babies that were sent to The Rainbow Bridge on Virginia's tears. Allyson is especially enjoying time with and loving all over the orange tiger kitty who loved her so when she was a baby. Virginia would love nothing more for your family to hear her saying, "I'm taking very good care of your precious child now. Draw some comfort knowing that I've got you covered."
