Christian, I was devastated to just find out that your mother had passed away. She was one of the loveliest persons that I've ever known, and a true Christian lady. I came to know her through bible study when your family (and mine) lived in N.N.; you were little. Please accept my condolences in such a loss, though you know that she watches over you and yours, always, Christi. From my heart,
Linda Pape

To "The family of five" your love for each other will live on forever. Your devotion to each other is inspiring to all who are fortunate to know you, and your love of God and His word is incredible and a blessing. Your Mom, and my friend planted these seeds in all of you and will live on for generations to come. Cindy was a total blessing to all who knew her and will be so missed, but she is with The One who loved her first and I know at peace. Love to all of you, Billy and Janet Bagwell

Mama, You always have been, and always will be, my forever best friend. I'm so proud of you. You fought until the very end. I know you heard the words, "week done thou good and faithful servant" spoken by the One you served with all your heart. I love you my precious girl. Love, Christi
