My condolences to the family. Your loss is great, but her reward is greater. Aunt Mary lived a long and full life--and now she is in a better place and not suffering. How wonderful for all of you that she was in such great health and had a sharp mind to the end! I enjoyed talking with her about her childhood with her brothers: Uncle Charlie and my father. I am saddened that because of my surgery I cannot attend to see all of my cousins and their extended families. May God give each of you comfort and peace and may you be sustained by all the wonderful memories you have. Love, Diane Hitt Frazier

Calm and composed are the words I think of when remembering Aunt Mary. No matter how many guests showed up at their home or whatever calamity the boys managed to get into, Mary quietly and competently did what needed to be done to handle the situation . It always amazed me how she was able to prepare such wonderful dinners for our family when we would show up, out of the blue, in her small but well equipped kitchen.. Her pies were blue ribbon quality and her big heart and kindness were well known. Big Mary, as we kids referred to her, is in the arms of the Lord she loved and will forever be in my heart and brother Destin's heart. To cousins, Jr. and Billy, and their families, Riggle and Taza send our love and prayers that you will be comforted by the promises of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
