Tom and Family, My heart is breaking for all of you. Betty was a wonderful, sweet and lovely lady. I know we all considered your family our family. I know my mom and dad loved you all so much. Growing up with you guys when my mom was babysitting some of you and attending Victory Baptist Church together, Oh, what great memories. I was going through some of my moms things this week and found Susie's birth announcement. it was fun thinking back to those days. I know the lose feels unbearable now, and the missing will probably never completely go away, but what wonderful memories you have and holding on to the fact that she is in the arms of our Lord and Savior. We are keeping all of you close in thought and prayer.with much Love, Vicki McCuin Rohs and Family

Susan and family: I know there are no words that will ease the loss you bear. May it help in some way to know that your friends are sharing the sorrow in your heart. Each time we embrace a memory, we meet again with those we love, for the heart never forgets. Your mom, grandmother, spouse, sister, mother-in-law, friend, did not want to go but God had other plans for her, he said "I need you so". God saw your mom was getting tired and a cure not to be, so he put his arms around her and whispered "come with me". With tearful eyes you watched and saw her pass away -- you could not make her stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands at rest. So she has left this world of ours and you all are very sad. When we lose someone we love, it seems as if time stands still - we long for one more touch, one more conversation, one more hug, one more kiss. Although it is difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may God comfort each of you and know that you have an angel watching over you. Prayers and blessings, Sharon Akers
