I was so sorry to hear of Karen's passing. She was such a special lady with a beautiful spirit that captivated everyone she met. I was hoping to make it to the funeral today to speak with you in person, but unfortunately I will not be able to attend now, However, I didn't want that to stop me from letting you all know how grateful I was that Karen came into my life. I work at the pharmacy where Karen would get her medications, and if she had a question or two she would call and we would talk. Over the past few years I got to know her a bit, and I'm not sure if she knew it, but Karen taught me a thing or two. The best lesson Karen ever taught me was about perseverance. I didn't know a lot of specifics about her situation, but I did know she had a rough road to travel in this life. And what always amazed me was how she could do it with such a big, beautiful smile on her face, day in and day out, ready to face anything that came her way with the strength, courage, and determination of a strong woman. She was amazing! Please know I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. I wish there was something I could say or do to make it better, but I know there isn't except to let you know she will not be forgotten. I will continue to pray for Karen everyday. Sincerely, Terri O'Keefe

She's in another home, a happier place filled with love and grace. May the God of hope, joy, forgiveness and love fill your hearts with joyful memories of all you shared with Karen. Trust the Lord to guide you through these difficult times and know that one day when our time here is through, your loved one (Karen) will say Welcome Home, I've been waiting for you. Karen's smile and loving kindness is missed and we send our sympathy and prayers to her family. Deborah Thrash, Real Life Community Church/ Food Ministry
